

Please do not weaken the current no-call laws that are already in place. Do not let pressure from special interest groups influence this law that is now in place.